

March 29, 2019

“Counseling for clients in the Criminal Justice System with a Gambling Disorder”

Ingalls Memorial Hospital, Harvey Illinois

8:00 AM – 12:15 PM

Presenter: Michael Goldman

My specialties is in GBLTQ issues, anxiety disorders, and in addictions, chemical dependency and process, i.e. gambling, sex. I have been trained in and am a strong proponent of mindfulness based stress reduction.

This training will look at people with gambling disorders and how they interface with the criminal justice system. It will include:

1. Criminal behavior & the law
2. The courts
3. The prison system
4. Opportunities for treatment/intervention

Objectives:

The audience member will be able to:

1. Describe the different types of criminal behavior associated with gambling
2. Discuss how the courts have been able to divert people with gambling disorders (PWGD) out of the CJS and into treatment
3. Explain how prisons can help or endanger PWGD

June 28, 2019

2nd Annual ICPG Southern Illinois Conference

Roland Lewis Building

800 S 27th St. Mt Vernon, Illinois

8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Dr. Joseph E. Troiani, Ph.D., CADC

Dr. Joseph E. Troiani, Ph.D., CADC, is the Director of Behavioral Health Programs for the Will County Health Department. At Will County he oversees adult, child & adolescent, forensic, correctional mental health programs along with the adult and adolescent substance abuse treatment programs. He is also core faculty and the Coordinator of the Substance Abuse Program at the Adler School of Professional Psychology. Over the past 39 years he has directed both substance abuse and mental health treatment programs in in-patient and outpatient settings. He has a Ph.D., and M.A. in Clinical Psychology and a second masters in Health Services Administration, and is a graduate of a two-year clinical training program in substance abuse. Offices held include past Secretary, Treasurer and President, of the Illinois Psychological Association, and Officer with the Illinois Association of Threat Assessment Professionals.

Michelle L. Malkin is a doctoral student at Michigan State University in the School of Criminal Justice. She holds a J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law, an M.S. in Criminal Justice from Michigan State University, and a B.A. in Sociology from Southern Illinois University Carbondale. Michelle's research interests focus on gambling motivated crime. In 2017-18, Michelle received an Eadington Fellowship in Gaming Research for her research on "Gender and Gambling Motivated Crime" from The Center for Gaming Research at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

August 23, 2019

9th Annual ICPG Conference

Adler University

17 N Dearborn St

Chicago, IL

Dr. Joseph E. Troiani, Ph.D., CADC

Dr. Joseph E. Troiani, Ph.D., CADC, is the Director of Behavioral Health Programs for the Will County Health Department. At Will County he oversees adult, child & adolescent, forensic, correctional mental health programs along with the adult and adolescent substance abuse treatment programs. He is also core faculty and the Coordinator of the Substance Abuse Program at the Adler School of Professional Psychology. Over the past 39 years he has directed both substance abuse and mental health treatment programs in in-patient and outpatient settings. He has a Ph.D., and M.A. in Clinical Psychology and a second masters in Health Services Administration, and is a graduate of a two-year clinical training program in substance abuse. Offices held include past Secretary, Treasurer and President, of the Illinois Psychological Association, and Officer with the Illinois Association of Threat Assessment Professionals.

Michelle L. Malkin is a doctoral student at Michigan State University in the School of criminal justice. She holds a J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law, an M.S. in Criminal Justice from Michigan State University, and a B.A. in Sociology from Southern Illinois University Carbondale. Michelle's research interests focus on gambling motivated crime. In 2017-18, Michelle received an Eadington Fellowship in Gaming Research for her research on "Gender and Gambling Motivated Crime" from The Center for Gaming Research at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.

September 27, 2019

Perception & Recovery

Registrants will explore the power of perception. Clinical concepts regarding addiction treatment will be examined. In addition, practical experiences and knowledge will be imparted to demonstrate the influence of individual perception in recovery.

Clock Tower

201 Clock Tower Dr., East Peoria, IL (Fondulac Bank Bldg.)

8:00 AM – 12:15 PM Dr. Kristine Strauss, Psy.D., CADC,

Dr. Kristine Strauss:

Dr. Strauss has been involved in the development, implementation and participation in specialty/problem solving courts. She has provided sex offender and domestic violence specific evaluations and treatments, restoration to fitness evaluation and treatment, substance use evaluation and outpatient treatment, anger management assessment and treatment, facilitation of parenting classes, and psychological testing. Dr. Strauss also has experience in creating and facilitating psychosocial rehabilitation groups for the chronically mentally ill. Additionally, she has conducted emergency department assessments for behavioral health admissions. Dr. Strauss has provided trainings for clinicians, Illinois public defenders, probation officers, and various officers of the Court.

Bill Johnson, Administrator ICPG

Bill Johnson has worked in the addiction treatment and prevention field for over 30 years. His experience has spanned the continuum of care, from detox to residential services. He has served on several boards over the years, to many to mention in this short bio. He was certified as an addiction professional for over 34 years, receiving his first credential in 1978 in Illinois. He is most satisfied in the fact that he has over 40 years of continuous recovery from addiction.

October 25, 2019

Mindfulness in Recovery Addiction Counseling

Vernon Township Community Building, Buffalo Grove, IL

8:00 AM – 12:15 PM

Faye Freeman-Smith

MS, Mental Health Administration

B.A., Psychology

Freeman-Smith is a college administrator, Clinical Licensed Professional Counselor, Mental Health Trainer and very active civic leader. She has a Master's degree in Community Mental Health Counseling and Administration and a Bachelor's degree in Psychology. She is the Director of Student Counseling Services at Heartland Community College (HCC).

She has a private practice (Counseling Resource Institute), which includes face-to-face and online therapy, mental health training, and clinical supervision. She has been on the Advisory Board of the Higher Education Mental Health Alliance for establishing standard in Distance Counseling to implement across the United States. Through providing supervision to counseling interns she has been an Adjunct Faculty member for the University of Illinois, Bradley University, Illinois State University She has served the Bloomington-Normal Community professionally and as a volunteer for more than 17 years. She is a founding member of the Black Business Alliance and is the recent past President. She has served on the boards of The Bloomington-Normal Boys and Girls Club; McLean County Extension Council; Unity Center; Great Plains Life Foundation; and is a Founder and past Board Member for McLean County's Multicultural Leadership Program. She is also one of the founders of Bloomington-Normal's first African-American Radio Station, WXRJ 94.9FM, and has served as their CEO for 5 years. She is also a member of Delta Sigma Theta Incorporated and The Links Incorporated. She was awarded the YWCA Women of Distinction award for Social Services in McLean County in 2016.

November 15, 2019

Counseling - Anger, Mindfulness and Recovery

Roland Lewis Building

800 S 27th St. Mt Vernon, Illinois

8:00 AM – 4:30 PM

Glen Cannon, MS, LCPC, CADC, CAMS III

Glen Cannon is a private therapist with offices in Naperville, Downers Grove and Lyons, Illinois. He has been in practice for over 35 years in the mental health and addictions fields. Mr. Cannon has specialized in the treatment of chemically dependent clients, pathological gamblers and clients suffering from anxiety and anger issues. He has also served as President of IAODAPCA, the Certification Board for Addiction Counselors in the State of Illinois. He is currently on the board of ICPG and Vice President of CCET Connections, a not-for-profit organization helping problem gamblers and their families.

December 13, 2019

Women, Gambling Disorder and Crime, How it “Doesn’t work”

Renz Addiction Center

Two American Way, Elgin, IL

8:00 AM – 12:15 PM

Michelle L. Malkin is a doctoral student at Michigan State University in the School of Criminal Justice. She holds a J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law, an M.S. in Criminal Justice from Michigan State University, and a B.A. in Sociology from Southern Illinois University Carbondale. Michelle’s research interests focus on gambling motivated crime. In 2017-18, Michelle received an Eadington Fellowship in Gaming Research for her research on “Gender and Gambling Motivated Crime” from The Center for Gaming Research at the University of Nevada, Las Vegas.