

ICPG Mission Statement

To increase public awareness about problem gambling, provide information and resources related to treatment for compulsive gamblers and their families, promote research, and develop and implement problem gambling education and problem gambling prevention programs in the State of Illinois.